

POLISH NATIONAL AGENCY FOR ACADEMIC EXCHANGE

Embassy
of the Republic of Poland

JAGIELLONIANS HERITAGE: PERSPECTIVES OF INTERNATIONAL RESEARCH

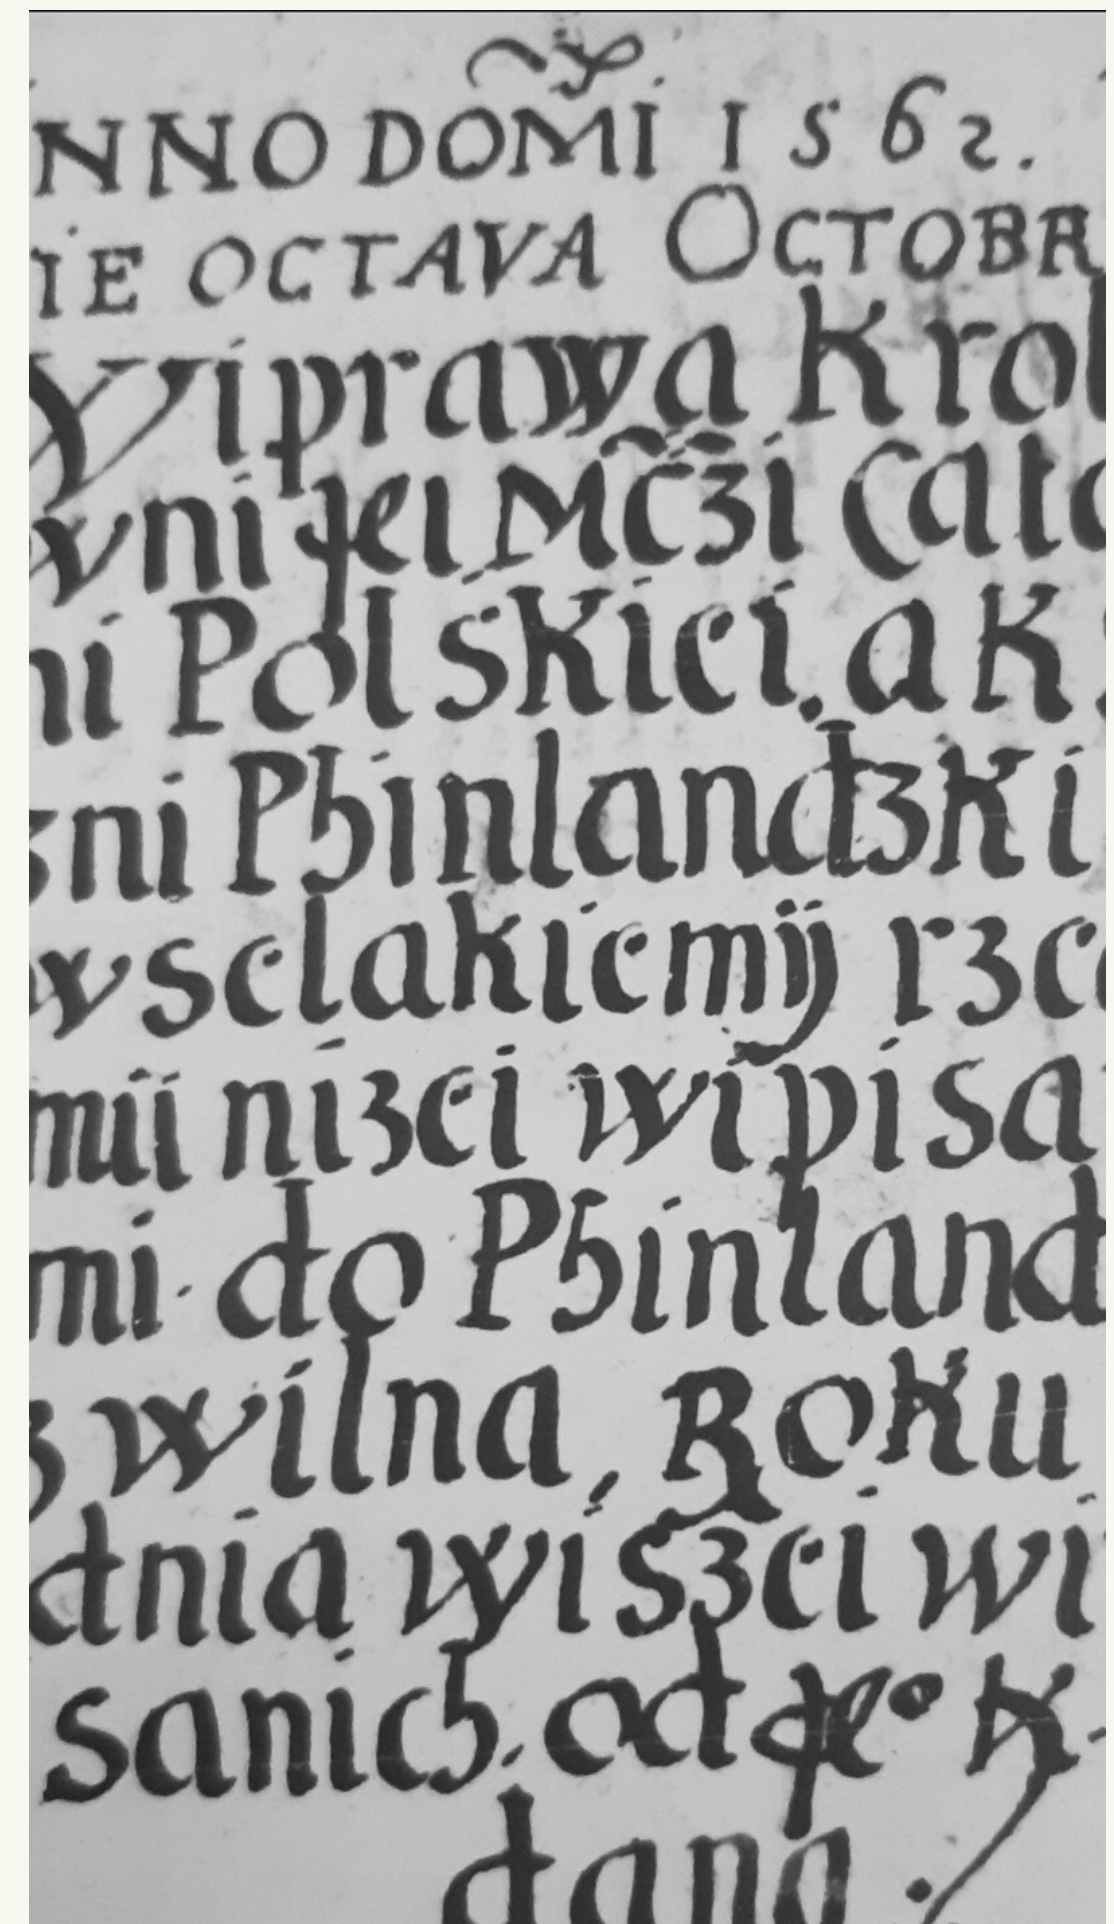

December 14, 2020

10.00 – 12.35

1. Susanna Niiranen, (Univ. of Jyväskylä), Tracing the Jagiellonian remnants in Scandinavia and elsewhere. History cultural and book historical aspects. (10- 10.25)
2. Natalia Nowakowska (Oxford University), The Jagiellonians project (10.25-10.50)
3. Anu Lahtinen (Univ. of Helsinki), Women in Jagiello and Vasa Courts: Local and Interregional Perspectives (10.50-11.15)
4. Raimonda Ragauskienė (Lithuanian Institute of History, Vilnius), Some Aspects of the Lithuanian-Swedish Historical Relations (until the beginning of the 17th century). (11.15-11.40)
5. Nina Manninen, (Univ. of Turku), PhD project on Catherine Jagiellon's inventory. (11.40-12.00)
6. Joanna Zatorska-Rosen (Stockholm Univ.), A picture of wars emerging from the Wituski's book collection. (12.00-12.25)
7. Miia Ijäs-Idrobo: (Univ. of Tampere): as a commentator

12.35-12.50 coffee break

12.50 – 15.20

1. Partycja Potoniec (IBL PAN): Dictionary of the 16th century Polish Language as a monumental project related to the Jagiellonian heritage (12.50-13.15)
2. Dariusz Chemperek (UMSC): A new source for research on the life and legend of Anna Wazówna. Funeral Kamen [...] to the death of [...] Anne of the Swedish princess by Wawrzyniec Chlebowski ((1625) (13.15-13.40)
3. Peter Sjokvist (Univ. in Uppsala): Travelling Books. Literary Spoils of War from Poland in Sweden, and Beyond (13.40-14.05)
4. Michał Kuran (UŁ): Occasional literature about the Smolensk victory of Władysław IV Vasa in 1634 - a review (14.05-14.30)
5. Paweł Bohuszewicz (UMK): Eric XIV: Old Polish study of madness. (14.30-14.55)
6. Ewa Cybulska-Bohuszewicz (IBL PAN): The basic corpus of Polish Renaissance texts related to the common heritage of Poland, Finland and Sweden: project presentation (14.55-15.20)

closing the panel

