The third Context, Cognition and Communication Conference will be hosted by the Institute of Philosophy, University of Warsaw. The main theme of the conference is "Varieties of Meaning and Content".

The purpose of the CCC conferences is to provide a platform for philosophers, linguists and cognitive scientists for discussing issues connected with the phenomenon of context dependence, general semantics and pragmatics, theories of concepts and theories of mind and agency.

We are especially interested in foundational philosophical questions and issues.

DATES:

June 18-21, 2020 (the main conference)

June 22, 2020 (post-conference workshop)

CFP:
