Sommerschule "Polish as a World Language"

Typ wydarzenia: Spotkanie

The "Greifswalder Polonicum" is an international summer school on Polish science, culture and language. It is financed by the Alfried Krupp von Bohlen und Halbach-Stiftung, Essen, Germany. Seminars and evening lectures in English, German and Polish held by internationally renowned scholars provide the unique opportunity to learn more about the culture and diversities of Poland and the Polish language from a scientific perspective.

Focusing on the Polish language abroad we are offering the following seminars this year:

- Kinga Kozmińska (London): Language ideologies, linguistic practices and family language policy in the Polish-speaking diaspora
- Justyna Budzik (Kraków):
Polska literatura emigracyjna na kontynencie północnoamerykańskim /
- Polish Émigré Writers in North America
- Kinga Geben (Vilnius): Badania nad językiem polskim na Litwie

Academic chair:

Professor Dr. Bernhard Brehmer (Greifswald)

Dr. Marek Fiałek (Greifswald)
